Handling of A Crisis

Crisis is defined as the turning point for better or worse, an emotionally significant event, a crucial time. We all experience various crises in life, physical problems, business situations, but in all probability the greatest crises occur in our family relations, and in marriage itself.

When problems arrive within the family or marriage, there is a strong tendency to blame the other party or someone else rather than self. Passing the buck, so to speak will not alleviate the crisis. There needs to be an examination of self, and a mutual confession of wrong, and each party pray for the other.

The crisis could well be test of our fidelity and love. Trials do test our faith. Tribulations, though unwanted, prompts a closer walk with God. In seeking God's help - we will petition wisdom with counsel, and by so doing receive the gift of patience in dealing with trial.

Many times the crisis in our life serves in very forceful way to point us to our greatest need in life, and that is a proper relationship with Jesus Christ. This is the ultimate blessing because as Paul stated, "I can do all things though Christ." After all, didn't Jesus say that the reason he came into this world, was that we could know the truth, the way, and the life.

Therefore in any crisis, remember as a child of God, you have the intercession of Christ who tells us to cast all our cares upon Him. Christ is the answer, is no idle statement when it comes to dealing with critical situations that we deal with in life.

A Special Christian Lady

We would like to extend our sympathy to Ira Goode and the Goode family during the loss of Debbie. For those of you who knew her knows she was kind, compassionate, loving, and giving. She helped many people throughout her life and was an excellent Sunday school teacher. She always had a bright smile on her face and never complained even when she was not feeling well. We will miss her very much, but we are rejoicing in her reunion with our Lord. Please remember Ira, Shaun, and Brandi in your prayers.

It’s Never to Late

Last Sunday was Allen’s (Shannon’s grandfather) 92nd birthday. I spent the weekend with Allen, and our conversion went to Christ and the hope we have in our Lord. I asked Allen if he had been baptized and he informed me he had not. He said he had attended the Church of Christ many years ago, but he had never obeyed the gospel. I told him the story of Philip and the Ethiopian Eunuch Acts 8:26-40, and that the eunuch said, “See, here is water! What prevents me from being baptized?” I told him we can call the Church of Christ in Sand Spring, OK and baptize him today. Allen said he has been wanting to do this for some time, but did not know how. Then with a smile he said I would like that very much. The Church of Christ in Sand Springs graciously opened their doors for us and rejoiced with us as Allen obeyed the gospel at 92 years old. It just goes to show you it’s never too late to obey the gospel.
