Pray like Jesus

Although we want God to answer our prayers with the request we want, we must remember God is in control in all things, and his vast knowledge is unmeasurable as he knows all. The God who knows the end from the beginning knows our needs and the needs of this world we live in. We must trust God when the answer to our prays is not what we want.

Like Jesus, we must submit to God’s will in all things. We should always pray, “Your will be done” just like Jesus did in Gethsemane.

(Mark 14:36-37)

³⁵ And he went forward a little, and fell on the ground, and prayed that, if it were possible, the hour might pass from him.

³⁶ And he said, Abba, Father, all things are possible unto thee; take away this cup from me: nevertheless not what I will, but what thou wilt.

Jesus is always the answer, we should seek his example in our study. Our faith is when we live like Jesus we are pleasing to God in every way.

Scriptural Worship

Our Lord told the Samaritan woman true worshippers would not be identified by a certain locale; rather, God- who dwells not in temples made by hands- must be worshipped in spirit and truth (John 4:23-24). Jesus says true worshippers “must” (Greek dei, “it is necessary”) worship God in a particular way.

True worshippers cannot go through the motions; they must worship in spirit. True worshippers do not create their own reality; worship must correspond to truth (cf. John 17:17). Divine truth is not independently discovered by the human mind because truth is revealed (cf. John 8:31-32; Eph. 1:9, 13). So in describing true worshippers, Jesus declares that one must worship with the depth of his being as God has prescribed.

Worship is the expression of praise and gratitude for who God is, for what he has done, and for what he continues to do, especially for the redeemed.
