LORD'S SUPPER: Each Sunday we observe the Lord's Supper, which reflects on the death, burial and resurrection of our Lord Jesus, and the hope of everlasting life we now can live through Him. (I Cor. 11:23-26)

THE OFFENSE OF INGRATITUDE

Rudeness never wins friends, and in my estimation, ingratitude is a form of rudeness. In spite of the ugliness of ingratitude, there are so many ungrateful people in this world Jesus healed ten lepers, and it must have saddened him when only one of the ten took time to thank him, for he asked, "Where are the nine?"

Repeatedly, the holy spirit urged thanksgiving, especially in our prayer life. The Christians in Philippi were told "be not over anxious, but with prayers and supplication with thanksgiving, let your request be made known to God." Likewise, the church in Thessalonica was told "In everything give thanks".

Yet, why do people fail to be grateful? I wish to share with you an article that I had filed under "Ingratitude" that lists six reasons People are not grateful.

- (1) There are many who are thoughtless and though they might think thanks are not verbal in their expression.
- (2) Some people are so conceited they think they richly deserve everyone's helping hand. On the other hand, some are so puffed up with pride
- (3) they will not admit that anyone has contributed to their success or well-being.
- (4) some are downright mean; they think everybody else is mean. They think no one would extend a helping hand to another out of the goodness of his heart, and those who seem to do so are trying to use you in some way to gain some advantage; and, of course, one does not need to be grateful toward such schemers.
- (5) some actually are so concerned about the gift, or rejoice so in it, they fail to appreciate the giver,
- (6) some are grateful and don't think it is necessary to express it.

Brethren, if you know how to be grateful, show it or express it.
