I Never Knew

I remember many years ago the first day I started a new job, my new supervisor was introducing me to the office staff. I remember one introduction in particular to a man that my supervisor knew for the past 20 years. The two of them had work closely together throughout the years on many of the same projects. I recognized the man’s last name as a previous church member from my youth, so I assumed he or his family was a member. As the three of us talked, I mentioned that I knew of his last name from a past member of the church, and asked if he was related. He said he was a member of the Church of Christ, and he was in a leadership role at the church, so more than likely that was part of his family from years ago.

My supervisor appeared to be very surprised that the other man was a member of the Church of Christ, and he too explained that he had been a member of the Church of Christ for many years.

As the three of us continued to talk we found out we knew many of the same people. I also couldn’t help, but notice that these two men who knew each other for many years, and had many dealings with one other were both shocked to find out after all this time that the other was a Christian.

Continue-

The stare between the two men grew into an uncomfortable silence, because it was painfully obvious that these two men talked about everything except God, and the example of Christ was not shown in them as neither one could recognize Christ in the other. Colossians 3:17

It's been my observation that people talk about what they feel is of importance in their life. For example, Christians love God with all their heart, soul and mind Matthew 22:37, with love for God like this your conversations are going to revolve around the word of God. The world talks about sports, hobbies, politics, movies, and who knows what, putting greater importance on words of man than the word of God. 1 Thessalonians 2:13

How sad it would be for someone to say "I never knew you were a Christian", but they knew your sports, hobbies, politics, movies, and anything else you waste time on.

Ask yourself

If God is the most important thing in my life, then what am I talking about?
