To Work in the Garden

I do all my own lawn work around my house. I rake the yard, pick up leaves, bag the leaves, mow the grass, edging and cleaning up. I do save some money by doing my own yard, but I also enjoy a sense of accomplishment by doing the work myself.

The yard work also often reminds me of childhood memories. My grandmother loved to work outside, she would often tell me how she loved to get down on her hands and knees to dig in the ground with her hands.

Once I became old enough to work "about 6 years old", my grandmother started working the devil out of me. 2 Thessalonians 3:11 After school and in the summer months, I was always working out in the garden or in the yard. My grandmother was always working with me, she never left me alone with the work, but instead she used the time to tell me about the Lord and His word. John 21:17, John 14:15

When I finally turned 16 years old, I was able to get a real job at Safeway grocery, ending the years of hard labor at my grandmother's house. I can tell you without any uncertainties getting that job at Safeway was a vacation compared to the outside labor in the heat.

My Grandmother taught me the importance of working and many lessons in the Bible. 1 Thessalonians 4:11. I pray for the young children of this present day who have never had a work day with a Bible lesson, but instead sit by in idle. Proverbs 19:15

I do believe my grandmother "worked the devil out of me" as a child, and for that I am truly thankful to God for giving me such a strong Christian grandmother. Proverbs 31:27.

It's kind of funny, but I do miss working out in the summer heat with my grandmother. My hope is to work with her again one day in the most beautiful garden at my father's house, but without the heat and sweat on my brow. Genesis 3:19
