Different

Generally speaking, most people find the idea of being different as a less than desirable description of their character. Man perceives life to be much easier when you blend in, or go with the flow by following the masses. Social norms become an unwritten rule of behavior that sear the conscience, soon man has the ability to justify the act of sin itself in his own mind.

1 Timothy 4:2

Christians are not to be conformed by the world; we are to be transformed by the renewing of your mind. This world “Natural man” with its wants and desires are always at odds with the loving guidance from God. We are to be different as we prove what is the good and acceptable and perfect will of God.

using our body that does not belong to us to do the work of the world. 1 Corinthians 6:19-20

Light is different from darkness, it's the difference that gives light the power to illuminate. Without being transformed you are just like the masses, and in you there is no light.

Christians are different in every sense of the word, as we are Christ like, not world like. It was God's will that Christ gave himself to deliver us from this present evil world. Galatians 1:4

We must examine ourselves daily. 2 Corinthians 13:5 If you find yourself following what most people feel or believe you may come to the conclusion you are no different than the world you live in.

I pray that we may all be different, only seeking what is the good and acceptable and perfect will of God.
