That Wonderful Day

Oh, what a wonderful day it was when I buried that old man of sin and put on my lord in baptism. I remember it as if it was yesterday. I was only 11 years old when I decided that Wednesday night to come forward. I had this indescribable feeling of blessed assurance as I answered the Lord our God, knowing at that very moment I was without a doubt doing exactly what God has commanded me to do. Acts 2:38-39.

I also remember the overwhelming amount of love I received from my new brothers and sisters in Christ. Everyone was so happy greeting me with smiles, hugs, and most wonderful words of encouragement. I can truly say that the Saints rejoiced with me when I was buried with my Lord and raised from that watery grave here at the Church of Christ.

Now after that most wonderful day every time we have someone come forward requesting to bury that old man of sin, and put on our lord in baptism I rejoice, and can only imagine the joy he or she must feel.

I also recognize the importance of the Saints being present here at the Church building rejoicing together and exhorting one another with Christian love. Hebrews 10:25

It is so very important that we introduce new Christians into a loving family of God and that is very hard to do when no one is present. Also, we must lead the younger in the way of the Lord as the new Christians have only begun to live the Christian life and will need guidance.

We should exhort older men as fathers, younger men as brothers, older women as mothers, younger women as sisters, with all purity. 1 Timothy 5:1-2

This is being part of a Family that belongs to God and is on its way home.
