All we can do is pray

There was a serious multiple car accident on the interstate resulting in several being seriously injured. The scene was quite gruesome, and the interstate was completely shut down as many people exited their cars to check on the injured. A small crowd of people begin to gather around one car in particular. There was a small child trapped in a car seat. The child was completely unconscious and unresponsive. At about this time, a state trooper came upon the scene, and removed the little girl from the car seat by cutting the straps with his knife. He placed the little girl in the middle road as he said aloud, “She is not breathing!” The trooper was on his knees over the girl’s body when he looked up at the people standing around him, and with a loud commanding voice he said “All of you start praying!” The trooper immediately started performing CPR on the child. The crowd of people all held hands together as one of the men in the group started to pray aloud for the child to start breathing, and that God would bless the trooper with the strength and ability to help her. the little girl started to breathe at the exact moment EMS showed up to relieve the exhausted trooper. The man continued to pray until the ambulance pulled away with the little girl stable and on her way to the hospital. The little girl who was only 3 years old miraculously survived without any complications.

The trooper later said in an interview that the girl was lifeless and did not look like she was going to live, but he remembered a Bible verse that said with God all things are possible, Matthew 19:26. So I told everyone to start praying.

It seems to me, too many times people wait until the end of the fight to ask for God's help when we should ask God for help BEFORE we start. The trooper in the story knew he could not save the girl by himself he needed help for the impossible and only God could provide.

We need God's help with everything we do in life. Not just the hard stuff but in everything. We should start our day with prayer, and pray throughout the day giving thanks for each thing we have, knowing that all things are from God and without him there is nothing.

1 Thessalonians 5:17

“God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble.” Psalm 46:1

So, don't forget to pray.
