According to Knowledge

I've heard many boast in their youth to claim to be extremely knowledgeable of most things; only to conclude in old age how truly ignorant they once were. Most of us can relate to this statement as we mature into an adulthood, and come to the understanding that no one knows everything except God.

This is truly a great step forward for Christians to understand. We are to remove self and insert Jesus Christ into all aspects of life. This is only possible when we become fully aware that God is all we need.

So why do so many of us get caught up in the world’s mess?

This happens when we stop living for God and start living for the things of this world. Christians should look at everything as a trap. The devil is always trying to pull your attention away from God by deceit. We stop using the knowledge of God and go back to the old failed knowledge of self. This is why we see so many involved with worldly things, and before you know it, we see a mature Christian calling others names, spreading gossip (True or not does not matter), and just being plain mean about it. That old Devil is so happy when you stop acting like Jesus Christ and start acting like yourself.

We have many examples in the Bible of men following what they believed to be the righteous path by using their own knowledge, and not submitting themselves unto the righteousness of God. Romans 10:3

Maturity is not something that all mankind will achieve. One does not need to search long on social media to discover how immature the majority of the world truly is. The Christian is to be Christ like in definition, and Jesus Christ came to the earth to do the will of the Father.

Christians should be patient toward all men, not just the ones we side with. 1 Thess. 5:14. We should never say evil things about others, or call men fools Matt. 5:22. We should spend our time telling others the of the Father and His love, of the wonderful hope we have in Jesus Christ. 1 Cor.15:19

I pray that the evil one does not deceive us. That we spend more time reading the Bible and in prayer. I pray that we are so busy living for God that we have no time for the actives of the world. Amen.
