LORD’S SUPPER: Each Sunday we observe the Lord’s Supper, which reflects on the death, burial and resurrection of our Lord Jesus, and the hope of everlasting life we now can live through Him. (I Cor. 11:23-26)

The Accuser
(Matthew 8:15)

I have personally experienced the Accuser a few times in my life. The upset and angry person ranting and raving about what the neighbor did the other day, a coworker at work or even brothers and sisters. I have also noticed it does not matter if the person doing the wrong did something to Accuser directly or if it has nothing to do with them at all. Another common denominator is the Accuser telling everyone about it, except of course the person who is supposedly doing the wrong.

Surprisingly, the problem will usually become minute or even will completely go away when the “Wrong doer” and the “Accuser” are together, but as quickly as it goes away it returns with the same lightning speed when the two separates again.

The fact is when you think a person is doing something wrong, there are two ways you can deal with it:

One way is to talk about it to a whole lot of people and spread it around AKA “Gossip about it”. Sadly, this is exactly what the world does, and sometimes even members of the Church act this way.

When we talk about others behind their back, we act in a deceitful way as a sinful coward.

The other way is to go talk to the person about it, because maybe the person doesn't realize it or maybe you are not seeing the whole picture.

When we talk to the person direct, we are courageous as Christ.

Christians are to always steadfast in the truth, when we have a problem with our brother, we should go and tell him his fault, between you and him alone, Matthew 18:15-17 But before we do that, we should look at ourself. Matthew 7:3

And, if we are to talk to other's we should always do this with love for one another. John 13:34-35 We should never come to anyone with the attitude that we are better than them or above them in some kind of way. Instead, we should approach with love Romans 12:10 and with the intent to help as a servant. Gal. 5:13

Also remember, when we are the ones being approached by others accusing us of wrong doing, we should also receive it with love and return with love even if the accuser is wrong or a non-Christian or even our enemies. Matthew 5:44

I pray that we may all be strong in the Lord with the love to overcome whatever the world may throw at us.
