I will tell them there is no hurry

I was blessed to be able to grow up in the Church of Christ, even more, so I was considerably blessed to have many wonderful teachers that were grounded in the truth. As a young child sitting in the same benches that are still in place now, I had the pleasure of hearing some very talented and gifted preachers. One of my favorite sermons that has stuck with me since childhood is a lesson from brother Don Bentley. In brother Don’s sermon he told an old story about three angels of the devil who were with the Devil himself trying to come up with new solutions to winning men over. As I was paying close attention to the detailed lesson, I had a mental image of the Devil and his angels conspiring against man, always making plans to harm them by deceiving and hiding the truth. The Devil will do anything to convince man to remove God from his life, and to act like the Devil himself with only one goal of pleasing one’s selfness.

Now as if the group was like a Devil's committee, the Devil asked the first angel what can we do? And he replied, "I'll tell them there is no heaven, so go do what you ever you want." The Devil laughed and said, "Go, you will win them over by the thousands." The Devil asked the second angel what can we do? He replied "I'll tell them there is no Hell, so you can do and say anything you want to without any concern." The Devil laughed even louder and said, "Go, you will win them over by the tens of thousands." The Devil asked the third angel what can we do? He replied "I'll tell them there is no hurry, so you can do and say anything you want to without any concern for there is plenty of time." The Devil's laughter was over filled with joy and was so loud that even the Devil's angels shook while plugging their ears. In between the laughter the Devil said, "Go, you will win them over by the millions." This sermon has always stuck with me over the years as I see men in the world fall for one of the three. The question is just as the songwriter George Frederick Root composed:

Why do you wait, dear brother, O why do you tarry so long?

Your Savior is waiting to give you A place in His sanctified throng.
