To the Work

We all must work each and every day. Even from the beginning, in the Garden of Eden, God designed Adam and Eve as workers. Gen 1:28 Gen 2:15. Paul was a tentmaker Acts 18:1-3; 20:33-35; Philippians 4:14-16. and Jesus was a carpenter Mark 6:2-3.

Christians are to work even when those around us are not. We are to be leaders of men, and followers of Christ learning by the examples in the Bible. Unfortunately, many will not follow the examples we know in the Bible. The weak ones are lead astray. Man is very weak without the word of God in him. So, he begins to follow sinful man and acts as he does. This all starts with man seeing others around him doing worldly things, and receiving worldly rewards as he begins to desire the same for himself. Others, may decide to take a different self-pity approach, and just give up working altogether, becoming slothful and hateful, saying "If he is going to act like that, then I am going to do my own thing". Then sinful man will follow his true heart, and sin with regard for no one but selfishness, no matter who or what he may destroy, I tell you following the worldly man is never the answer! When others around us live for sin, it is up to us to live for God, and our reaction should be an increase in the work we do, not a retreat as if the evil is winning. We should know that the Bible is the word of God, and is here for us to use, so read it. We have so many examples in the Bible of those who are put to the test, are steadfast to the word of God overcome the world. Look at the example of Joseph. He was betrayed by his own brothers whom he loved and trusted, sold into slavery, then lifted up high only to be betrayed again and thrown into prison. Gen. 39 He then helped others in prison, but was forgotten about for two full years, and then finally lifted to high again, and Pharaoh set Joseph over all the land of Egypt. And Pharaoh took off his ring from his hand, and put it upon Joseph's hand, and arrayed him in vestures of fine linen, and put a gold chain about his neck; And he made him to ride in the second chariot which he had; and they cried before him, Bow the knee: and he made him ruler over all the land of Egypt. Genesis 41:42-43

Joseph faced many terrible things you and I may never have to go through, and I thank God for that, but the message by example is never stop trusting in God. Always follow God no matter what we face knowing that as long as we continue doing the work, He is with us always. Never give up by turning to the Devil when others are most a surely living for sin. Even when it's those who are close to you like your family. Remember, Joseph's own family betrayed him, but he continued to trust God and do the work.
