LORD’S SUPPER: Each Sunday we observe the Lord’s Supper, which reflects on the death, burial and resurrection of our Lord Jesus, and the hope of everlasting life we now can live through Him. (I Cor. 11:23-26)

CONTRIBUTION: During the service, we as members are given the opportunity to give a portion of what God has given us. This money is used to support the church and to help spread God’s Word. (I Cor. 16:2)

A Christian Man

One does not need to listen long to a man to know if he is a Christian when he speaks of his wife. Any man that tells others that his wife is of the bad sort, and does nothing good, is lost to understanding of the word of God. I tell you the truth, when men say bad things of their wives it’s no different than saying this: “I’m a bad person with the worst set of leadership skills ever seen. I have no control over my own self or over my own household.”

One could also say it’s like a man saying this: My hand is the worst hand I have ever seen. It’s always doing the wrong thing. Why just the other day I told it to right down a reminder note to do something and it just acted like I was talking to myself. Oh, don’t get me started on how it acts when we have company over. You would think it would at least clean up for dinner, but oh no that’s way too much to ask. Last week I had to meet with the CEO of a very important client, and that no good hand of mine wouldn’t even come out of the pocket to shake and say hi!

I know this sounds crazy and it should. God tells us that a man shall leave his father and his mother and hold fast to his wife, and they shall become one flesh. Genesis 2:24 God says that they become one. So how can a Christian tell others his wife is a real piece of work?

God tells us that husbands should love their wives as their own bodies. He who loves his wife loves himself. Ephesians 5:28 What Christian man would say one negative word about his own wife that he is to love as himself?

One might say, "well you just don't know how she acts and what I have to deal with." No, I don't, but I do know what the word of God says: Be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ forgave you. Ephesians 4:32 Husbands, love your wives, and do not be harsh with them. Colossians 3:19

A Christian man must love God with all his might. This is the most important thing in this life. We must grow up with the Bible in the home, and that is the job of the man. Also, we are to put the attendance of Church above the attendance of worldly things. This all falls on the Christian man not the wife, as men are the head of the home. For the husband is the head of the wife even as Christ is the head of the church, his body, and is himself its Savior. Ephesians 5:23

Mark this saying, and remember it: A Christian Man Loves his wife and would never speak bad of her specially to lift up himself out of approach.
