THE SUCCESSFUL LIFE

The desire to succeed is innate and universal. The rules for success vary with many people. Many books have been written on the subject. However, in the attempt to measure success by some material standard in the acquisition of things.

Jesus plainly taught, “a man’s life consisteth not in the abundance of things which he possesseth.” (Luke 12:15) The savior of mankind pointed out in John 14:6, “I am the way, the truth, and the life.” In this declaration, he not only declared I have come to show you the way of life, but in John 10:10, he went on to say, “and that they may have it more abundantly.” Success is ours when we learn the lesson of submission to God, the rules being not my will, but “THY WILL BE DONE.”

In addition, we must resolve to live a life of service to humanity. Only in these two ways are we able to not become “enemies of the cross”. (Philippians 3:18)- and in verse 19, “whose God is their belly, and whose glory is in their shame, who mind earthly things”.

The philosophy of our age is to get for self, and many try to get as much as possible while giving as little as possible, whereas the divine rule is to be willing to give more than we receive.

In every successful life, six-character traits will be evident:

- (1) HONESTY- cheat and deception furnish profit, but for the moment.
- (2) VISION- success must be visualized.
- (3) INTENSITY- ECCLESIASTES 9:10 “do it with all thy might.” There is no real success without determination, hard work, and courageously facing each challenge in pursuit of goal.
- (4) PERSEVERANCE- The man who gives up can never achieve. The man who keeps trying eventually closes in on his goal to achieve.
- (5) FAITH- without these all-else crumbles to dust, we need and must have faith in God, faith in our fellowmen, and faith in ourselves.
- (6) PROPER ATTITUDE TOWARD TIME- Rejoice in the day the Lord has given. Pray that God’s will be done, determine not to misuse or abuse the moments given, and redeem as much time as possible for the Lord, and remember, we only receive one moment at a time, a tiny little minute, but eternity is in it.
