Rejoice in the Lord

In Phil.4:4 Paul wrote, “Rejoice in the Lord always: again, I will say, Rejoice.” -But what are some circumstances that call forth the joy of which Paul speaks?

We ought to rejoice in our salvation. After the Ethiopian officer’s conversion, he went on his way rejoicing (Acts 8:39). After the seventy returned from their mission, Jesus told them to rejoice that their names were written in Heaven (Luke 10:20). If one’s sins are forgiven and his name is written in the Lamb’s book of life, he certainly ought to rejoice.

We ought to rejoice as we realize that God is in control of world affairs. Sometimes the catastrophic events throughout the world cause us all great concern.

But, we must not despair, realizing that God is aware of all and is in control of all (Rom. 13:1-4; Isaiah 6:1).

And even if we must suffer for right doing, there is occasion for rejoicing (Acts 5:41; 1 Peter 2:20).

We ought to rejoice in the knowledge that all will work out to the ultimate good of the faithful.

“And we know that to them that love God all things work together for good, even to them that are called according to his purpose.” (Rom. 8:28).

All things revolve around the good of the church.

Paul also said, “The Lord will deliver me from every evil work, and will save me unto his heavenly Kingdom...” (2 Tim.4:18).

Indeed, the Christian has every reason to rejoice in the Lord.
