Fearing fear

A father was having a difficult time getting his young son to bed, “I can’t sleep dad, it’s too dark. And I’m scared!” explained the son. “There’s nothing to be afraid of son,” the father said. “I sleep in the dark, and I’m not afraid.” “Sure” the boy replied, “you’ve got mom looking out for you!”

As children with active imaginations, we tend to let fear rule our lives. Such as a group of young campers telling scary stories, or walking in the dark, and see what you think is a mysterious stranger is only a lamppost.

As we mature, and grow into adulthood, we develop a much better understanding of the world and its dangers. Right!?!? We learn to discern real threats from imagined ones. When fear comes, we do our best to think rationally, and manage our emotions until the menacing situation passes.

Worry is a type of fear. It could become our daily companion if we let it. Family problems, job stress, economic uncertainty, crime, global conflict, environmental disaster - there is no shortage of things to fret about. Normally, we manage to keep all of these things in perspective, and do not allow them to dominate our lives.

However, sometimes a personal crisis can make the normal concerns of life seem more burdensome, even overwhelming. Struggling with a family conflict, or some other dilemma, can weaken our normal defenses against fear to the point that rational thinking goes out the window. Then fear takes control.

So, what does the Bible say about Fear and how we Christians are to handle it?

Psalm 23:4 "Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for you are with me; your rod and your staff, they comfort me."

Psalm 27:1 "The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? The Lord is the stronghold of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?"

Isaiah 41:13 "For I, the LORD your God, hold your right hand; it is I who say to you, "Fear not, I am the one who helps you."

Deuteronomy 3:22 "You shall not fear them, for it is the LORD your God who fights for you."

Psalm 115:11 "You who fear the LORD, trust in the LORD! He is their help and their shield."

2 Timothy 1:7 "For God hath not given us the spirit of fear: but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind."

I could go on sharing more verses on fear. God is telling you not to fear, not to worry, and not to be anxious, or afraid of anything as long as The Lord is number one in your life and in your heart. Just give it over to the Lord and pray about it. Don't let these things rule your life! Let the Word of God be the rule over your life!
