What a Friend

There are so many songs we sing about Jesus as a true best friend and present comfort in our daily struggles. He is always there to aid us in so many different ways if we will only allow him to. Joseph Medlicott Scriven is the author of "What a Friend We Have in Jesus". It is said that shortly after Scriven moved to Ontario, he wrote a letter to his mother in Ireland to comfort her in a time of sorrow she was going through. This letter became the song we know as "What a Friend We Have in Jesus". After its publication, it is said that a neighbor asked if Scriven really wrote it, and Joseph replied, "The Lord and I did it, between us".

Look at the words that Joseph sent to his mother to try and bring her out of her sorrowful time. You can truly see a man who had a great deal of faith in the Son of God, knowing that God had a plan of salvation for us all, and that Jesus is all we really need.

Continue-

I know every time we sing this song it reminds me that we should always give it over to the Lord in prayer, and that He knows and understands what we need even before we ask. What a letter of encouragement this must have been for her, and what different way to look at this song knowing it was a letter.

What a friend we have in Jesus, all our sins and griefs to bear! What a privilege to carry everything to God in prayer! O what peace we often forfeit, O what needless pain we bear, all because we do not carry everything to God in prayer! Have we trials and temptations? Is there trouble anywhere? We should never be discouraged; take it to the Lord in prayer! Can we find a friend so faithful who will all our sorrows share? Jesus knows our every weakness; take it to the Lord in prayer! Are we weak and heavy laden, cumbered with a load of care? Precious Savior, still our refuge--take it to the Lord in prayer! Do your friends despise, forsake you? Take it to the Lord in prayer! In his arms he'll take and shield you; you will find a solace there.

I pray that we my all be encouraged by knowing that no matter what we face in this world that we have a friend like no other, Jesus Christ. Amen
