Where is God?

A grandmother and grandfather were watching their grandchildren for the summer. On Sunday morning on the way to church, one of the grandchildren asked, “why do we go to church?”

As the grandfather went on to explain why, the older grandchild interrupted, “but where IS God?”

The younger grandchild starts to shout “I know! I know! God is in the sky!” Then the children begin to argue back and forth about where God is...

As the grandfather tries his best to explain that God is everywhere, both grandchildren become very quiet, as the younger child asks, “is God in the car with us right now?” The grandfather replies, “well, yes He is in a way.” The child then declares, “I think God wants to drive to Shipley’s, and get a donut with sprinkles!”

God’s omnipresence is a hard concept to grasp even for mature Christians. Since everything else in our world is limited to a single location, it can be difficult to wrap our minds around the concept that God IS everywhere. Scripture tells us that:

God fills the entire earth, and no man can hide from Him (Psalms 139:7-10).

Not even the heavens and the earth combined can contain God (1Kings 8:27). God's eyes are everywhere and He can see both the evil and good (Proverbs 15:3).

Since God is near (Jeremiah 23:23-24), Paul told the people of Athens that He wants people to seek Him, to grope for Him, and to find Him (Acts 17:27).

God is in all places and He is nearby, but He wants to become even closer with us.

The way we do this is simple, we draw near to Him and He will draw near to us in return (James 4:8).

God is everywhere. This can be a fearful thing if we try to hide sins. But is a comforting thing when we rely on Him.

When we are going through the toughest times in our lives, God is always near.

When we need Him the most, God is near.

When we feel alone, God is near.

Just how near God is to us depends on how closely we draw near to Him.
