The Exception to Forgiveness

Many times, I have seen the devil working those around us in this selfish world. Job1:7

It has been my experience that one of the devil's preferred methods is to prevent the act of forgiveness. The devil does this by convincing the world of exception to forgiveness, that there are rules to follow in order to forgive. We see examples of this behavior with statements like:

he/she does not deserve it.

he/she will have to apologize first.

he/she need to explain in greater detail what they did and why it's wrong.

If I forgive, I will be condoning their offense.

If I forgive, others will take aggressive action against me for the offense.

If I forgive, I am weak to let the other person win.

He/she is not in my life, so I don't need to forgive!

It's too much to forgive. I'm just too angry to forgive!

The devil will say anything to rob you of the power of forgiveness! Forgiveness transforms anger and hurt into healing and peace. Forgiveness can help you overcome feelings of depression, anxiety, and rage, as well as personal and relational conflicts.

The power of forgiveness is the power of God. When we forgive others, we act like Jesus with love. It was God's will that Joseph be reunited with his brothers and to his father In Genesis Chapters 45 – 46. Joseph's Forgiveness enabled him to be with his family who he loved.

A Christian must forgive in order to be forgiven!

Matthew 6:14. For if you forgive other people when they sin against you, your heavenly Father will also forgive you. 15. But if you do not forgive others their sins, your father will not forgive your sins.

There's nothing that man could do to you that compares to the cross, and look at what Jesus did with the power of forgiveness.

Then Jesus said, Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do. Luke 23:34
