The Christian

The Christian is by definition Christ like, simple: One must act like our Lord and savior Jesus Christ to be a Christian. This is not possible for man to do on his own, he must have the spirit of Christ to act like Christ. Romans 8:9 The only way one can receive the spirit of Christ is to repent and put on our Lord in baptism. Galatians 3:26-27 No one can be in the flesh and experience what is of the Spirit of Christ. And if Christ be in you, the body is dead because of sin; but the Spirit is life because of righteousness. Romans 8:10 Therefore one cannot “try out the Christian life” without true repentance and baptism. Acts 2:38

The world would have you to believe that a Christian is “one who professes belief in the teachings of Jesus Christ”. As if all one needs to do is to simply believe, but does not the devils also believe, and tremble? James 2:19

The Christian must also have the mind of Christ, who being in the form of God, yet he humbled himself as a servant. Jesus never boasted about himself or did anything to build up his own reputation or any for himself, Philippians 2:5-8 Jesus Christ only did the will of the Father.

We must have humility; Jesus lived a humble life and taught others to humble. Matt.18:1-3

Christians are to be obedient to God, Jesus came to do the Father's will John 6:38-39 and he never stopped until the work was finished. John 19:30 Christians will suffer in this world we live in, and we must continue to always serve the Father by doing His will and not our own. When Christians serve God, they learn obedience by the things which are suffered, just as Christ himself being the son, yet learned obedience by the things which he suffered. Hebrews 5:8

The Christian should love as Christ loved, that means everyone, John 3:16 even our enemies. Matt.5:43-44 Christians can truly love like this because of the faith we have in God, John 5:30 knowing that the Bible is the very word of God, and tells us having love will overcome all the evil this old world can put on us. 1 Corinthians 13:5

The Christian must have total faith in God, knowing that when we forgive others who sin against us, (no matter what they did against us) we become truly like Christ as he forgave those who crucified him, parted his raiment and also mocked him, coming to him, and offering him vinegar to drink. Luke 23:34-36

The Christian must study the Bible to understand all the qualities of Christ. We should never put our faith in anything other than the true word of God, and we should never think that we know anything about what is good or righteous, because what we think does not matter. Only the will of the Father which is in heaven. Matthew 7:21
