They will know we are Christians by...

There's a beautiful song in our hymnal called they'll know we are Christians.

This song was written in the 1960s by then-catholic priest, the late Peter Scholts It is inspired by John 13:35.

<sup>35</sup> By this all will know that you are My disciples, if you have love for one another."

If you take the time to really read the words, we are singing you'll notice that they are full of scripture, we are singing Gods word.

The hymnal starts with the first verse
"We are one in the Spirit; we are one in the Lord.
And we pray that all unity, may one day be restored."

The Second verse "We will walk with each other; we will walk side by side;
And we'll guard each man's dignity and save each man's pride."

The last verse
"All praise to the Father, from whom all things come;
And all praise to Christ Jesus, His only Son.
And all praise to the Spirit who makes us one."

The Chorus: And they'll know we are Christians by our love, by our love, yes, they'll know we are Christians by our love

Continue-

1 John 4:7-12

<sup>7</sup> Beloved, let us love one another, for love is of God; and everyone who loves is born of God and knows God. <sup>8</sup> He who does not love does not know God, for God is love. <sup>9</sup> In this the love of God was manifested toward us, that God has sent His only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through Him. <sup>10</sup> In this is love, not that we loved God, but that He loved us and sent His Son to be the propitiation for our sins. <sup>11</sup> Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another.

Romans 13:8

<sup>8</sup> Owe no one anything except to love one another, for he who loves another has fulfilled the law.

Galatians 5:13

<sup>13</sup> For you, brethren, have been called to liberty; only do not use liberty as an opportunity for the flesh, but through love serve one another.

Ephesians 4:2

<sup>2</sup> with all lowliness and gentleness, with longsuffering, bearing with one another in love,

John 13:34-35

<sup>34</sup> A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another; as I have loved you, that you also love one another. <sup>35</sup> By this all will know that you are My disciples, if you have love for one another.”

So how will they know you are a Christian?

Will it be by your love?
