Decisions to be made

We make decisions each day, some good, some not so good, and some that are just plain bad from the start. Some decisions are just simple every day ones that you are making without much thought, and then others take time to consider, and may be life changing, high risk, and can leave you feeling anxious. To avoid making a bad decision, some people bring a range of decision-making skills together in a logical and ordered process following a series of steps. Man will base his decision on his own investigating of the situation after going over every detail, explore all options, and finally selecting the best solution for the needs and wants of his family, business, organization, or his own personal desires. There is also the procrastinator who just does nothing and makes no decisions at all. Although, sometimes doing nothing is the best option; one should only come to this conclusion after much consideration. The best way is to follow the example of our Lord and savior Jesus Christ in all things.

The Christian should always use a logical way to make his decisions, and we should above all else seek the will of the Father in each choice we make. Even the little ones we are faced with each day. We may have something we want very much to happen, or maybe we want to buy something, so we are saving up for it every week. Whatever it is, before we do anything, we should pray about it. Then we should base our decisions on things that please God and are not self-seeking.

We should always ask ourselves this question: Will this glorify God or help others in their struggles? Sometimes the answer is no, because those things you are seeking are only for yourself without any concern for God and others. No matter how unfair you may feel about the decisions you must make, Christians should always self-examine, and seek the will of God above everything. Oh, how small it truly is compared to Jesus Christ in His decision He made to save us all. Remember His prayer saying, "Father, if thou be willing, remove this cup from me: nevertheless, not my will, but thine, be done." And being in agony, He prayed more earnestly: as His sweat were great drops of blood falling to the ground. And with His disciples, He found them sleeping for sorrow, and then Judas, betrayed Him with a kiss. Luke 22: 40-48 I tell you if you make all your decisions by putting God first. Before you move forward with anything, even a thought, go to God in prayer, and study the word of God as if the answers themselves are in the scriptures. You will truly be blessed in this life and the life to come.
