A Pride-ful Month

As businesses take part in advertising for the LGBT COMMUNITY and plaster the rainbow along with their beliefs everywhere, June 1st marks the beginning of Pride month. We all know the difference between right and wrong, and we know that everything “PRIDE MONTH” stands for is sinful. They steal the rainbow to use it as their own, but as Christians we know the true beautiful meaning behind the rainbow. We read in Genesis 9:13-17 I set My rainbow in the cloud, and it shall be for the sign of the covenant between Me and the earth. It shall be, when I bring a cloud over the earth, that the rainbow shall be seen in the cloud; and I will remember My covenant which is between Me and you and every living creature of all flesh; the waters shall never again become a flood to destroy all flesh. The rainbow shall be in the cloud, and I will look on it to remember the everlasting covenant between God and every living creature of all flesh that is on the earth.” And God said to Noah, “This is the sign of the covenant which I have established between Me and all flesh that is on the earth.”

The Rainbow belongs to God.

Sin is such a selfish act and can be very prideful. C.S. Lewis speaks for many Christians when he calls pride “the essential vice, the utmost evil.” He asserts that pride “is the complete anti-God state of mind” (Lewis, 1980, pp. 121-22).

Many people today, however, view pride as a virtue, and a key component in emotional maturity and self-actualization.

Sinful pride is not to be confused with self-respect. Romans 12:3 “Do not think of yourself more highly than you ought, but rather think of yourself with sober judgment, in accordance with the measure of faith God has given you.”

You are created in God's image

Genesis 1:27 So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them. And we belong God not ourselves.

1 Corinthians 6:19 Do you not know that your bodies are temples of the Holy Spirit, who is in you, whom you have received from God? You are not your own;

Romans 12:1-2 So brothers and sisters, since God has shown us great mercy, I beg you to offer your lives as a living sacrifice to him. Your offering must be only for God and pleasing to him, which is the spiritual way for you to worship.

Do not be shaped by this world; instead, be changed within by a new way of thinking. Then you will be able to decide what God wants for you; you will know what is good and pleasing to him and what is perfect.

The world wants you to buy into all the sinfulness of "PRIDE MONTH." The devil wants you to believe that you are a mistake and God hates you. But the devil is the one who hates you. He is jealous of God's love for his children.

Psalm 139: 15-16 talks about how deliberately God went about creating you, and in being a child of the Father, you are loved and cherished, even when this world tries to tell us otherwise. My frame was not hidden from you when I was made in the secret place, when I was woven together in the depths of the earth.

Your eyes saw my unformed body; all the days ordained for me were written in your book before one of them came to be.

1 John 4:9-11 In this the love of God was manifested toward us, that God has sent His only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through Him. In this is love, not that we loved God, but that He loved us and sent His Son to be the propitiation for our sins. Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another.

God loves you.

So, let us take back the rainbow! Let us have self-respect! Let us not be prideful! Let us not entertain those who are prideful!
