Burden Bearing

Rather than acting in a divisive or unconcerned manner, Christians should seek to encourage and help one another. Although help should be given to those who are in physical need (Galatians 6:10; 1 Timothy 5:16; 1 John 3:17), Paul began the section by emphasizing the necessity of helping those who struggle spiritually. He declared, “Brethren, if a man is overtaken in any trespass, you who are spiritual restore such a one in spirit of gentleness, considering yourself lest you also be tempted” (Galatians 6:1). His words are challenging for several reasons.

First, they challenge us to know our brethren and be aware when they yield to temptation (cf. 1 John 5:16). Otherwise, we could not presume to reach out to them with assistance.

Second, they challenge us to know what is acceptable to God and, conversely, what is unacceptable (cf. Ephesians 5:17). It is better to serve one another as we are to be like Christ, and Christ came to serve not to be served. Luke 22:24-30

Third, they challenge us to make sure we are living properly before we approach those who are not (cf. Matthew 7:5; 2 Corinthians 7:1).

And finally, Paul's words challenge us to reach out to our fallen brethren in an appropriate manner (cf. Proverbs 15:1-2) Importantly, when we show concern for our brethren, as Paul instructed, we help others carry their burden (Galatians 6:2) Douglas J Moo explained,

“Bringing back into the fellowship of Christ a brother or sister who has strayed will often mean entering into their lives with empathy and concern to take on ourselves whatever of their own sorrows and difficulties that we can” By doing so, we “fulfill the law of Christ” (Galatians 6:2)
