Thankful for forgiveness

Around this time of year, we gather around the table as we get ready to spend time with our loved ones to enjoy a meal. Oftentimes families will go around the table to say what they are thankful for. One year this family went around the table starting from youngest to the oldest. The young boy shouted “I’m thankful for my toys!” The young boy’s older sister interrupts, “no you must be thankful for something important: like when we get sick mommy takes care of us. I am thankful for mommy.” The mom replies, “well I’m thankful for my family.” As the dad states “I’m thankful for my job.” The young boy looks to his grandmother and asks “well, grandma what are you thankful for?”

The grandmother looks around the table and says, “I am thankful for forgiveness.” The family looks at the grandmother as the young boy ask what does she mean?

The grandmother begins to quote Matthew 6:14-15, “for if you forgive men when they sin against you, your Heavenly Father will also forgive you. But if you do not forgive men of their sins, your Father will not forgive your sins.”

The Dad asks the grandmother "so you are thankful you can forgive others?"

The Grandmother replies "oh you bet I am!

The Lord our God is merciful and forgiving, even though we have rebelled against him"
(Daniel 9:9)

The grandmother looks to the young boy and says, "because God so loved the world, he gave his only begotten son so that we can have everlasting life. If God can forgive me, you, and everyone else in the world for what we did to his son, we can forgive others.

For you, O Lord, are good and forgiving, abounding in steadfast love to all who call upon you." — Psalm 86:5

So, not only on Thanksgiving, but every day from the moment you wake up give thanks to God.

Be thankful always and ask yourself:

what am I thankful for?
