We have this moment to hold in our hand.
And to touch as it slips through our fingers like sand.
Yesterday’s gone and tomorrow
may never come.
But we have this moment today.

Angry Words

We often sing the song “Angry Words” written by H.R. Palmer. This is a great song for reminding us of our need to control our anger. Horace said “Anger is a momentary madness, so control your passion or it will control you”

Are you in control of anger or is anger in control of you?

Take the Test!

- 1.) Do you have a “Bad Temper”?
- 2.) Are you touchy and flare up at the least provocation?
- 3.) Do you have the feeling that someone is out to get you?
- 4.) Are you carrying an old grudge against someone or a group of people?
- 5.) Are you resentful of other people for a “GOOD REASON”?
- 6.) Do you find yourself saying “He or She makes me so angry I Can’t Stand IT”?
- 7.) Do you find yourself avoiding people because of your feelings of unrest or anger?
- 8.) Do you find yourself apologizing for your bad behavior when you become angry?
- 9.) Do you find yourself attacking other personal worth and not dealing with the situation when angry?

If you consistently answered yes than you are controlled by your anger.

Remember

The last verse of the song says: “Angry words are lightly spoken, bitterest thoughts are rashly stirred, Brightest links of life are broken by a single angry word”.

And most importantly the chorus:

“Love one another thus saith the Savior Children obey the Fathers blest command” “Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind; and, ‘Love your neighbor as yourself.’ Luke 10: 27
