The Exception to Forgiveness

Many times, I have seen the devil working through those around us in this selfish world. As we are reminded in Job 1:7, Satan is 'going to and fro in the earth, and walking up and down in it.

The devil does this by convincing the world that there are exceptions to forgiveness, that there are rules to follow in order to forgive. We see examples of this behavior in statements like:

"He/she does not deserve it."

"He/she will have to apologize first."

"He/she needs to explain in greater detail what they did and why it was wrong."

"If I forgive, I will be condoning their offense."

"If I forgive, others will take aggressive action against me for the offense."

"If I forgive, I am being weak and letting the other person win."

"He/she is not in my life, so I don't need to forgive."

"It's too much to forgive."

"I'm just too angry to forgive!"

The devil will say anything to rob you of the power of forgiveness!

Forgiveness transforms anger and hurt into healing and peace. Forgiveness can help us overcome feelings of depression, anxiety, and rage, as well as personal and relational conflicts. The power of forgiveness is the power of God. When we forgive others, we act like Jesus by showing love.

It was God's will that Joseph be reunited with his brothers and his father in Genesis chapters 45–46. Joseph's forgiveness enabled him to be reunited with the family he loved.

A Christian must forgive in order to be forgiven.

Matthew 6:14–15 “For if ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you: But if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.”

There is nothing that man could do to you that compares to what Jesus endured on the cross. And look at what Jesus did with the power of forgiveness:

Luke 23:34 “Then said Jesus, Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do.”

Forgiveness may not always be easy, and sometimes it may take time. But God has given us His Word to guide us and His strength to help us. We may not be able to change what has happened, but we can choose to forgive as Christ has commanded, let go of bitterness, and trust God with the outcome.

Choose forgiveness, follow God's Word, and trust Him to bring healing, peace, and strength to your heart.
